

Dear Parents and Carers,

As you know this is our Anti-Bullying Awareness Week and the theme this year is keeping yourself safe online and cyber-bullying. Your children are doing a range of activities in relation to this throughout the week so please make sure you take time to talk to them about what they have learnt. Advice for parents about how to keep you child safe online was provided in today's information event and will also shortly be available on our website.

Governing Body & Junior Governing Body Visits

Last week a number of our School Governors visited during the school day as part of the school's self-evaluation. They looked at a range of areas including English, Maths, Healthy Lifestyles & building maintenance & development. For the first time, our Junior Governing Body (formerly the school council) joined them and created their own questions for areas they wanted to know more about. They then spoke to staff and children to find the answers and are now going to take this information back to each class to discuss what they think the school should improve on next. We will keep you posted with the outcome!

Year 1 – Weather Workshop

Year 1 thoroughly enjoyed the Weather Workshop held last week. We travelled on their class aeroplane to the North and South poles and many countries in between. We discovered how different weather systems can impact people, animals and plants and the relationship between the equator and temperature. We also learnt why camels have long eye lashes and why polar bears have thick fur!

Nuts

We currently have a number of children in school who have severe nut allergies. Therefore please do not send your child to school with nuts of any kind in their packed lunches or as snacks, this also includes Nutella and Peanut butter as a filling in sandwiches. Thank you.

Parent Governor Elections

As explained in last week's newsletter, the ballot papers for our parent governor election are being distributed today. These need to be returned by end of school on Wednesday 15th November. Please put your vote into the box at the main gate or at main reception. Thank you.

Reminder - Book Fair

This term's book fair is taking place after school every day this week from 3.15 until 3.45 in the hall. This is an excellent opportunity to purchase reading books for your child or even get started on your Christmas shopping. Every item sold also raises money for the school which we use to purchase new books for the school library. So please come and support this worthwhile event.
