

Headteachers Message

Dear Parents & Carers,

As part of celebrations for Chinese New Year, children had a special lunch menu yesterday and will be enjoying the Chinese Road Show on the 12th February which features different aspects of Chinese culture. It is also Safer Internet Day this week, which this year is on the theme Our Internet—Our Choice! Please take time to look at our handy hints for more details.

General Messages

Parents Evening

Parents Evening is on Thursday 14th February. Appointment request letters have been sent out today so please check your child's book bag!

No Nuts Please!

We have several children in school who have nut allergies so please remember not to send in any nut based food in your child's packed lunch or as a break time snack. Thank you

Learning Tips

Reading Tip 7: Visit the library together

Visit the local library together on a regular basis, and enjoy spending time choosing new books. There are also often a number of free sessions and activities to help your child engage with reading. Use your library—don't lose it!

Safer Internet Day

Our Internet—Our choice!

Understanding consent in a digital world. As part of Safer Internet Day we have attached some helpful advice about speaking to your children about consent online.

We have also put this on our website www.ellenwilkinson.newham.sch.uk

Click on Parent zone at the top and then go to E-Safety Tips

Want a paper copy? Just let us know and we will provide one for you.

Day 2019

Newham Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service Open Doors Festival

Wish you could have 20 minutes with a specialist counsellor to talk about your issues as a parent? Are you a child or young person who would like to talk to someone neutral about difficulties with family relationships? Well, the Open Doors Festival could be just the chance you are after.

Newham's Children and Family Counselling Service are throwing open their doors to anyone who wants to talk to them about family issues as part of Children's Mental Health Week which runs from 4-10 February 2019. Please see the flyer for details.

The Open Door Festival will take place at: Child and Family Counselling Service, 411 Barking Road, Plaistow, E13 8AL

Congratulations
